

SOCIETY TO SHOW PETS.

Pomeranian Club to Hold Forth To-day in Ballroom of Waldorf.

Everything is in readiness for the Pomeranian dog exhibition to-day at the Waldorf-Astoria, under the auspices of the American Pomeranian Club and under the direction of the Bench Committee, which is composed of Miss Anna Sands, Mrs. Hartley Williamson, Mrs. William Caner Weidersheim, Miss D. B. Champion, Mrs. Morris Mandy, Mrs. E. S. Allard, Mrs. Frank Smyth, and Miss Elsie G. Hydon.

Judging will begin at 10 o'clock A. M., with Charles G. Hopton passing on the merits of the entrants, which number close to the 400 mark, nearly a third greater than in the initial show. An international complexion has been placed on the exhibition by the nominations of Mrs. A. H. Howarth of Toronto, who will show a quintet of pets of English breeding, which have been consistent winners wherever exhibited.

A wealth of interest is manifested in the classes for pets, to be shown by their owners, in which society women will strive for prizes without any competitive contention from those who are in the habit of exhibiting other than for the love of it.

In these specials nominations have been made by Mrs. Ogden Mills, who will show Trixy III., a wolf sable, which was a winner in several classes in last year's big show. Others will be Miss Anna Sands's Pom Patch Balper Tossie, a winner at the Westminster exhibition last year; Miss Evelyn Burden's Pengwerne Blue Imp, Mrs. James A. Stillman's Dare Sable Mite, Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt's Lady Blue, Mrs. Frank Smyth's Banner His Lordship, and Mrs. Asher de B. Keim's Little Sallie Lynde.

In addition to the regular prize list, there will be nearly 150 specials disposed of, as the gifts of Mrs. W. Goadby Loew, Mrs. L. C. Dyer, Mrs. William Caner Wiedersheim, Mrs. A. H. Pembroke, Mrs. German Hopkins, Mrs. D. N. Hollins, Mrs. Hartley Williamson, Mrs. J. B. Martin, Mrs. E. S. Avis, Mrs. J. M. Rhodes, Miss Anna Sands, Mrs. J. K. Ogden Sherwood, Mrs. Ralph Chambers Stewart, Mrs. Henry Jarrett, and Miss Edwina Elkins Brunner.
